Conversation Starters

Dinner is a great time to sit around the table and catch up on the day's events. It is also a wonderful time to strengthen the relationships we have with one another thru appreciating one another's ideas, feelings, thoughts and experiences.

Conversation Starters are designed to spark great table talk - to take you beyond the "so how was your day?" It's simple to use - just grab a question from Conversation Starters and let the chatter begin.

You can use Conversation Starters several ways

- Print and Go OR Print and Personalize -

1. PRINT & GO! Simply print the decorative Conversation Starters (pages 2 - 6) out on white paper and hang on the fridge. Simply look at the page each day to pick something to chat over.

OR

Print the colored pages (pages 2-6) out on white, high quality photo paper or card stock.

Using a paper trimmer or a pair of scissors, cut the first page of questions in half from top to bottom, starting between the top 2 questions. (You will now have 2 long strips that are 1 question wide and 5 questions long).

Now, you will cut those strips apart so that each question is on it's own card. You can eyeball it or use a ruler to make them even. They are spaced every 2.2". When you are finished, you should have 10 individual cards. Repeat for the remaining pages.

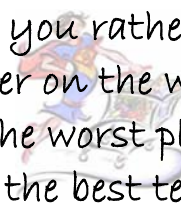

Add the cards to a cute basket, decorated mason jar, or add a magnet and stick to the fridge! They'll be ready when you are to get that dinner conversation going.

2. PRINT & PERSONALIZE: Print the "black text only" Conversation Cards (pages 7 - 11) on your favorite decorative or colored paper. Make them match your kitchen, a holiday theme, etc.

Cut them apart as mentioned above or using a template or large punch, make them into the shape of "tags", even add a darling ribbon. Place them in a cute basket, jar, or even hang from a cute centerpiece or on the fridge if you added ribbon.

Conversation Starters

Dinner is a great time to sit around the table and catch up on the day's events. It is also a wonderful time to strengthen the relationships we have with one another thru appreciating one another's ideas, feelings, thoughts and experiences.

Conversation Starters are designed to spark great table talk – to take you beyond the “so how was your day?” It's simple to use – just grab a question from Conversation Starters and let the chatter begin.

You can use Conversation Starters several ways

– Print and Go OR Print and Personalize –

1. PRINT & GO! Simply print the decorative Conversation Starters (pages 2 - 6) out on white paper and hang on the fridge. Simply look at the page each day to pick something to chat over.

OR

Print the colored pages (pages 2-6) out on white, high quality photo paper or card stock.

Using a paper trimmer or a pair of scissors, cut the first page of questions in half from top to bottom, starting between the top 2 questions. (You will now have 2 long strips that are 1 question wide and 5 questions long).

Now, you will cut those strips apart so that each question is on it's own card. You can eyeball it or use a ruler to make them even. They are spaced every 2.2". When you are finished, you should have 10 individual cards. Repeat for the remaining pages.

Add the cards to a cute basket, decorated mason jar, or add a magnet and stick to the fridge! They'll be ready when you are to get that dinner conversation going.

2. PRINT & PERSONALIZE: Print the “black text only” Conversation Cards (pages 7 - 11) on your favorite decorative or colored paper. Make them match your kitchen, a holiday theme, etc.

Cut them apart as mentioned above or using a template or large punch, make them into the shape of “tags”, even add a darling ribbon. Place them in a cute basket, jar, or even hang from a cute centerpiece or on the fridge if you added ribbon.
